Spring Valley Reformed Church welcomes Divinity Trio to our outdoor stage tonight, June 12th @ 6PM. Please join us in the valley for an evening of music and ministry. A free will offering will be taken.

Divinity Trio, though new to the industry, has a rich history in gospel music. Before divinity was formed each member of the group has had the privilege to travel and sing extensively across the US and Canada with various Gospel artists. Now with a common goal and purpose Divinity Trio is out to share the love of Christ in word and song. Their goal is to reach the lost, encourage the believer and honor God in all they do.

Spring Valley Reformed Church welcomes No Worries to the outdoor stage on Sunday June 19th at 6:00PM. Please join us in the valley for an evening of praise and worship. A free will offering will be taken.

No Worries is a local bluegrass gospel band that was formed in 2019. They specialize in playing for churches, festivals, local celebrations, parties & nursing homes. A seasoned musician, Stockton resident, Terry O'Malley, comes from a musical family. He plays various instruments, including banjo, guitar, mandolin & bass. His masculine harmonies enhance the female vocals, which makes the band's three-part harmony solid. The band's lead vocalist, Mary Jean Hammer, accompanies herself on the mandolin or guitar. Her heartfelt passion and sweet voice bring a solid foundation to the group. She resides near Apple River where she & her husband own a family business. Also from Stockton, Mary Berryhill, brings the bass beat and adds some exciting vocal leads as well as some very tight harmonies, which perfectly rounds out the group

Trinity Sunday is the first Sunday after Pentecost to honor the Holy Trinity—the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Although the word “trinity” does not appear in Scripture, it is taught in Matthew 28:18-20 and 2 Corinthians 13:14 (and many other biblical passages). The concept of the trinity can never be completely understood or rationalized, but it is clearly taught in Scripture. Understanding of all scriptural doctrine is by faith which comes through the work of the Holy Spirit; therefore, it is appropriate that this mystery is celebrated the first Sunday after Pentecost, when the outpouring of the Holy Spirit first occurred.

On Trinity Sunday, the Christian Church ponders with joy and thanksgiving what the Father, Son and Holy Spirit have done to accomplish the salvation of sinful humanity. It is brought to remembrance how Christians should respond to the love God has shown us, praising Him and giving Him glory. We remember the Father as our Creator, the Son as our Savior and the Holy Spirit as our Comforter. Scriptural readings for Trinity Sunday may include Psalm 8, beginning and ending with, “O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth.” Second Corinthians 13:11-13 appeals to believers to aim for perfection and live in peace, ending with the prayer that the grace of Christ Jesus, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all, including again the commission Jesus left for believers in Matthew 28:16-20.

Today, Trinity Sunday is to explain, to the best of man's ability, the clues written in Scripture to guide us to a fuller understanding of our triune God. The Father is God from the beginning (John 1:1); Jesus revealed Himself as equal to the Father in John 10:30, "I and the Father are one." Together, they sent the Holy Spirit (John 14:26). "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (Matthew 28:19).
